

Family-Teacher Conference Checklist

Before the Conference

- Get familiar with the student's Development and Learning report. This report has great talking points for the teacher.
- Review the Individual Child Report.
- Use the Digital Forms to assess students' progress.
- Share Family Conference Form in the My Teaching Strategies-Family portal (print if needed).
- Gather student work that will represent the child's strengths, progress, and growth.
- At least two weeks before- Invite parent/guardian to the family conference.
- At least one week before- Confirm time and date of family conference.
- Create a conference schedule. Be sure to discuss scheduled times with your School Leader.
- Generate the Family Connections Report. Check to see who is not connected to My Teaching Strategies-Family. Also, check Ready Rosie.
- The day before- send home a conference reminder.
- Determine the family's preferred method of conference (in-person, phone, or virtual).
- Create a conference agenda. This will help you stay focused during the conference.
- Create a welcoming environment for the family.

During the Conference

- Greet each family.
- Start with a positive. Share work that shows the child's strength.
- Use clear language- avoid education terms and acronyms. Encourage families to ask questions.
- Use positive language- instead of "your child is struggling" try "your child is working on..."
- Be an active listener.
- Write down notes to follow up on after conference.
- Send invite to use Ready Rosie and My Teaching Strategies Family.
- Discuss that the RR and TS-Family are used throughout the school year.
- End conference on a positive note. We are all working towards the best interest for the child.
- Family member and teacher signs to confirm participation in the conference.

After the Conference

- Send families a thank you.
- Follow up on any parent questions or concerns.
- Send 4K Coach conference schedule with family signatures.
