THE NEED PERSISTS IN LANCASTER COUNTY

First Steps works but we need to expand our reach to ensure that all children are ready.

6,915

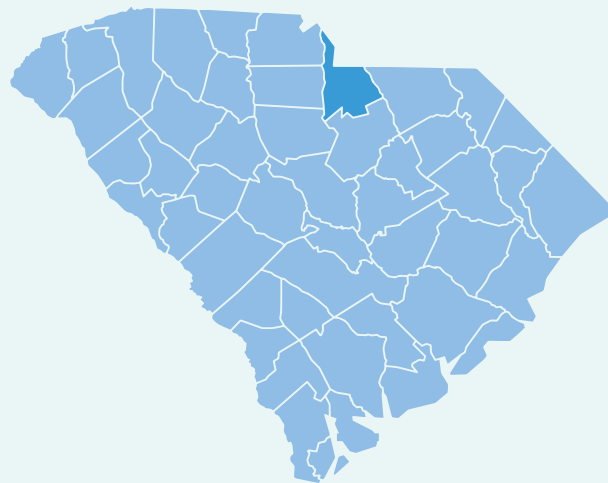

children birth to five

35%

of young children live in poverty or low-income households

60%

of kindergarteners are considered "not ready" for school

PROVEN RESULTS

A 2019 study found that children who received First Steps local partnership services were:

74% more likely to score at the highest level on the Kindergarten Readiness Assessment

34% less likely to be chronically absent in kindergarten

When we started with Parents as Teachers, we were homeless, moving between family homes and a motel. With help, we got food, shelter, and eventually a home. Now I have a job, a car, and my kids are thriving in the LCFS Early Head Start while I work.

ANNUAL REPORT 2024-2025

OUR MISSION

Lancaster County First Steps is a non-profit organization that collaborates with the community and other organizations to ensure that children are prepared for success in school and beyond.

Tomeiko Wright
Executive Director

“We Are Lancaster” is more than a slogan it’s a reflection of our shared commitment to building a stronger, more connected community. As someone born, raised, and educated in this county, I’m honored to serve as Executive Director and give back to the place that shaped me.

This year, Lancaster County First Steps made meaningful progress by expanding access to early childhood resources, deepening partnerships, and empowering families to reach their full potential. We remain dedicated to helping every child enter school ready to succeed, and every parent feel supported and equipped.

Our work is rooted in service, collaboration, and the belief that lasting change begins with strong foundations. I’m proud of what we’ve accomplished and even more excited for what’s ahead.

As Nelson Mandela once said, “Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.”

Together, we are creating that change. Together, We Are Lancaster.”

Paul McKenzie
Board Chair

Lancaster County First Steps continues to make meaningful progress in preparing children for school and supporting families across our community. We believe in the power of partnerships, data-driven decisions, and evidence-based programs. Our board is committed to expanding this work to ensure every child enters school ready to succeed, backed by strong families and a network of community support.
